-- Net Revenue Up 55 Percent Over A Year Ago;
EBITDA Up 43 Percent; Net Income Up 94 Percent --

-- Advertising Pre-Sales Indicate Strong Momentum for 1998 --

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Mexico City, Mexico, October 22, 1997 -- TV Azteca, S.A. de C.V. (NYSE: TZA; Mexican Stock Exchange: TVAZTCA), Mexico's second largest television broadcaster, today announced continued strong growth in net revenue, EBITDA, operating income and net income for both the third quarter and nine months ended September 30, 1997 over the comparable periods of a year ago.

TV Azteca, which became public in August of this year, has won a large part of Mexico's U.S.$ 1.3 billion television advertising market with its production of popular programming and its innovative pricing and payment plans. TV Azteca's combined average weekday prime-time audience share increased from 14 percent at the end of 1994 to 36 percent for September, 1997. TV Azteca currently has the highest-rated show on Mexican television, Mirada de Mujer, a soap opera that has consistently been the most popular show in its Prime Time position and recently achieved a 41% audience share.

Third Quarter Results

In the third quarter of 1997, sales increased 55%, EBITDA increased 43% and net income increased 94% over the third quarter of 1996:

The Company's increase in sales in the third quarter of 1997 reflect TV Azteca's growing share of the Mexican audience, particularly in Prime Time. The Company's weekday Prime Time share increased from 30% in the third quarter of 1996 to 33% in the third quarter of 1997. TV Azteca's share of the audience from 6:00 a.m. to midnight, seven days a week increased to 26% in the third quarter of 1997 from 24% in the third quarter of 1996.

Results for 9 months 1997

For the first nine months of 1997, sales increased 87%, EBITDA increased 101% and net income increased 40% compared to the same period last year:

Ricardo Salinas Pliego, Chairman, President and Chief Executive Officer of TV Azteca stated, "TV Azteca continues to build momentum towards our goal of winning 50% of the television audience and advertising market. The best example of our ability to become the number one broadcaster in Mexico is Mirada de Mujer, the novela we launched in August. Mirada de Mujer has consistently won its time-slot and has become the highest-rated program on Mexican television. For the first time in Mexican television history, the number one novela is not produced and aired by Televisa. What is also driving our sales is the fact that TV Azteca is clearly the better buy; our advertisers can buy audience as well as targeted demographics."

Mr. Salinas also stated that another driver of growth is that "TV Azteca, as one of two broadcasters in a country of 95 million people, is ideally positioned to take advantage of the growth in the Mexican economy and the increase in advertising spending due to more competition between brands as the Mexican market opens up."

Adrian Steckel, Chief Financial Officer of TV Azteca, stated, "Our 55% increase in net revenue and 43% increase in EBITDA in this quarter compared to last year demonstrate the success of our programming strategy. Producing programs costs us more, but it is also much more profitable because our originally produced programs attract larger audiences. Our 56% and 51% EBITDA margins for the first nine months and the third quarter of 1997, respectively, indicate our ability to produce while controlling costs."

Pre-Sales for 1998

“Our advertising pre-sales are 25% ahead of last year in real terms, and 90% of our customers are opting for Cost-Per-Rating-Point pricing. Based on our pre-sales, the continued success of our programming strategy and our ability to produce at a low cost, we are confident that TV Azteca will continue to deliver strong financial and operating results”, Mr. Steckel said.

TV Azteca is the second largest broadcasting company in Mexico. TV Azteca owns and operates two national television networks, whose signals reach 94% and 97%, respectively, of Mexico's 86 million television viewers. In August 1997, TV Azteca completed a successful public offering of approximately 133 million Ordinary Participation Certificates (CPOs), which are traded on the Mexican Stock Exchange and on the New York Stock Exchange, in the form of American Depositary Receipts (each representing four CPOs).
